Animal Genetics:

Animal Improvement and Population Genetics (Rev.), 149.
Canary, breeding sex-dimorphic, 213.
Cattle: dwarfism in Aberdeen-Angus, 141; Unique herd of Hereford, 207; Syndactylism in Holstein-Friesian, 241; midget Hereford, 273; Parturitions Three Weeks Apart, 303.
Dihybrid segregation calculation, 291.
Dog: Inheritance in (Rev.), 150; research on genetics and social behavior, 191.
Drosophila, physico-chemical properties of sex chromosomes in, 219.
Fowl: Snow-White down, 117; genetics of (Rev.), 139; progeny tests, 266.
Goat, heteronymous horns, 81.
Grasshopper, effect of altitude on cells of, 269.
Guinea Pigs: whitish hair color, 231; roan hairs in, 267; supernumerary mammae, 307.
Guppy, semi-lethalism in male Lordotic, 257.
Heterozygosity, number of progeny required to test a male for, 215.
Horse: new evidence on the genetics of the palomino, 61; color varieties (Rev.), 297.
Mammals, dominant and recessive black, 48.
Mice: vestigial tail, 71; pintail mutation, 179; tail and anus mutation, 305.
Mink: genetics of (Rev.) 182; genetics of the ranch (Rev.), 189.
Progeny Testing: 237; 266.
Rabbit, transplantation of fertilized eggs, 259.
Tapeworm, hybridization, 264.

Approach to Genotypic Equilibrium with Varying Percentages of Self-Fertilization and Cross-Fertilization, M. J. Garber, 299.
Aschner, B. and F. J. Kallmann, The Problem of Epilepsy (Rev.), 275.
Asmundson, V. S., Genetics of Poultry Brought Up to Date (Rev.), 139.
Avis, Frederick R. and Paul B. Sawin, A Surgical Technique for the Reciprocal Transplantation of Fertilized Eggs in the Rabbit, 259.

B

Bacon on the Light of Reason, 236.
Baker, Marvel L. et al., Dwarfism in Aberdeen-Angus Cattle, 141.
Baldwin, J. T.: Chromosomes of Ferns and of Their Allies, (Rev.), 50; Donald Walton Davis (Obit.), 137.
Basic Horticulture (Rev.) Harlan P. Kelsey, 311.
Bellini, Concetta Catherine, A Preliminary Investigation of Mutation Production in Sarcina lutea Schroeter, 297.
Better Late Than Never, 190.
Blunn, Cecil T. et al., Dwarfism in Aberdeen-Angus Cattle, 141.
